

MBBS in Russia – One of The Oldest MBBS Destination for Indian Students

Russia is one of the largest countries in the world which shares its borders with fourteen countries. Russian is one of the official languages in the United Nations. The country covers 8 time zones and includes 12 seas which surround the nation. The population in the country is 145.5 million. The most inhabited country of Europe. The Russian constitution offers free health services to its citizens. There are many government health agencies that take care of people in any type of health issues. The life expectancy for males in Russia is around 59 years as compared to 73 years for women. Russia is a popular destination for Indian students who wish to pursue medical education. In the field of medicine Russia has good medical colleges where students can get admitted. Students aspiring to complete the course in the country need to obtain a no objection certificate from medical council of India.

Irkutsk State Medical University, Russia

The Irkutsk State Medical University was founded in the year 1919. Currently the university has 19 faculties and over 18,000 students. The university is highly revered for its facilities for higher studies and research, training, laboratories and observatories. The buildings of the university are also significant from the point of view of archaeology since most of these were built in the 18th and 19th centuries. The university is the oldest higher educational institution in the Far East and Eastern Siberia. The senior students of all the faculties have the scope to take up specialised courses and take part in internships in scientific research institutes under ISU and the Siberian Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences. They can also practice practical work in the university laboratories. The faculty of the university has been highly qualified for ages and they have included many famous scientists, professors, learned men and women.
